

I am in favor of the NCVEC petition based on their filing. I am an Extra Class Licensed Operator and a participating Volunteer Examiner. Being licensed for about 40 years, I see the Morse requirement as antiquated and unworthy of being a test element in FCC exams. To encourage proficiency in radio operations, other operating modes or facets of the service should be tested.